

Chanté White, Senior Ambassador

- Looking for a doctor experienced in adult medicine?
- Confused by Medicare choices?
- Need affordable health care?

“I am very excited to be a part of the Monarch HealthCare team because I have a passion for working with seniors, and Monarch is a place where I can really make a difference in our members’ lives. I can be a resource for navigating the healthcare system quickly and easily.”

As a Senior Ambassador for Monarch HealthCare, Chanté White assists members with questions about physicians, the authorization process and health plan selection. Chanté also coordinates educational programs at senior centers covering wellness, disease prevention and other topics of interest.

Professional Qualifications

Chanté has been working in health care since 1992. Her background includes training in the field of social work, as well as extensive managed care experience. Prior to joining Monarch HealthCare, Chanté was the regional center community liaison at CalOptima, the Orange County agency that administers the state MediCal program. This was an executive position that involved working with seniors and individuals with developmental disabilities.

Chanté holds a bachelor of arts degree in social work from California State University Long Beach.

Personal Interests

A California native, Chanté moved to Orange County in 1990. She is an avid runner and completed a half marathon in 2003. With a passion for world travel, Chanté visited Canada, France, Germany and the Netherlands in 2005. Italy is next on her itinerary. Chanté’s hobbies also include gourmet cooking, visiting art museums and reading inspirational books.
